

Meet the O # ' U ' O ~

Thomas Tryon

Thomas retired to Sarasota following a career of more than 30 years working in entertainment, special events and catering at the Walt Disney World Resort in Orlando. Prior to that, he worked at Busch Gardens Tampa Bay and in professional theatre in Chicago at stages including the Goodman Theatre, Pegasus Theatre and Victory Gardens Theatre. He received his B.F.A. in Production Management from The Theatre School at DePaul University.

Through the years, he has sung with the Orlando Chorale; First Presbyterian Church Orlando; St. Luke's United Methodist Church, Windermere; and at First Methodist Winter Park. Currently, in addition to the Key Chorale and Chamber Singers, he sings with Choral Artists of Sarasota and volunteers as a special events consultant throughout the community.
